Chrysanthemums.

"And what a wilderness of flowers!
It seemed as though from all the bowers
And from the folds of all the year,
The mingled spoils were scattered here."

This is exactly the sentiment one feels on entering the great display of chrysanthemums at Evergreen Lodge for in reality it appears that dozens of growers must have contributed to this display. It is so large and beautiful, only the enterprise of a Clarksville institution could have ever produced single handed anything so gorgeous as the exhibition that all our citizens enjoy daily right here in our city. Each day the plants get more beautiful and but a day or two longer will see them at their best. There are not adjectives enough in the English language to tell how beautiful they are, it must be seen to form any conception of its elaborate proportions and artistic arrangement, go and see them everybody, it is an exquisite display and we want everybody to know it.

Prof. Rast, of Hopkinsville, is coming with his entire school to be instructed and charmed by this gorgeous exhibition. Arrangements are also to be made for an excursion from Princeton and other surrounding towns.

The plants are all for sale at reasonable prices, and all our flower loving people should secure a few of these beautiful specimens over which the country is in a complete craze at present. Our local florist has done more for this plant than any other grower in the south, and has given a stimulus to floriculture taste throughout this entire community that will remain long after the chrysanthemums have ceased to bloom.

Action of Forbes Bivouac.

At a called meeting of Forbes Bivouac of Confederate veterans, held Nov. 7th, 1888, to take suitable action in reference to the death of comrade R. B. Tarpley, T. H. Smith, J. J. Crisman and Dr. D. F. Wright were appointed a committee on resolutions, who presented the following:

WHEREAS, our comrade R. B. Tarpley, under sealed orders from the great Commander of the armies of the universe has been transferred from service in the Bivouac on earth to Gods eternal camping ground. We bow in humble submission to the will of Him who cannot make a mistake, and who doeth all things well.

Our comrade early in his young manhood, gave his services, all he had, to his country, entering the Confederate army as a private in Nelson's Artillery, in which branch of the service he remained until regularly paroled April 20, 1865—he was faithful to the end. He was a confederate veteran in all that term signifies, and aided in making the record of which we are all so proud.

Upon his discharge he entered upon the duties and responsibilities of civil life in the fulfillment of which he earned the same unimpeachable record for faithfulness and courage which he brought with him from the army. Some years before his death he contracted a terrible malady entailing on him untold agonies, which he bore with an unflinching courage and patient endurance—the courage of a soldier, the endurance of a martyr. So true is it that a faithful soldier is always found faithful in all other callings.

Resolved, That these proceedings be spread upon the minutes of the Forbes Bivouac. A copy be furnished the family of our late comrade, and a copy be furnished the city papers for publication and further, that we attend his funeral in a body.

A SLICK TRICK.

That Tells the Difference Between Gold and Copper.

Just before noon yesterday a colored woman who recently came from Indiana, and whose name could not be learned, entered the store of Mr. Silvey Sullivan and requested change for a five dollar bill. Mr. Sullivan in order to be accommodating, gave the stranger a two dollar and a half gold piece, two silver dollars and fifty cents, with which she departed well pleased; but some hours later she returned to the store with a bright shining one cent piece of glistening copper, and this she claimed to be the two dollar and a half piece she had received in change.

Mr. Sullivan however knew that he had but one coin different from silver, and this was the one given the woman, and so he claimed his cause. The woman however got out a warrant for his arrest and the case was settled in court. Mr. Sullivan was heard before Squire Caldwell and honorably acquitted.

Tribute of Respect.

To the Chancellor Commander and brothers of Cumberland Lodge No. 17 Knights of Pythias:
Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions on the death of Bro. R. B. Tarpley, herewith submit the following:

WHEREAS, The supreme ruler of the universe has seen fit to remove from our midst in this Castle Hall, our well beloved Knight R. B. Tarpley, who departed this life on November the 5th 1888, at 9:40 p. m., after a long lingering and painful illness, and

WHEREAS, We deem the occasion appropriate to the expression of the sentiments of affection entertained for him by every member of this lodge who enjoyed his acquaintance while living, and who now deplore his loss since he has gone, therefore

Resolved, That in the death of Knight Tarpley we recognize that inscrutable wisdom, which, while it removes from our midst an esteemed brother and friend, from the domestic circle a kind husband and indulgent father, from society a valuable citizen and a good neighbor, admonishes us not only of the uncertain tenure of life, but of utility of the practical virtues which he exhibited in his daily intercourse with the world, and in his attachment and devotion to the principles of his profession as a man and a Knight.

Resolved, That as members of Cumberland Lodge, we tender our condolence and sympathy in their sore affliction to the bereaved family of our deceased Knight.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be furnished, under the seal of the lodge to the family of the deceased, and be entered on the records of the lodge, and a copy be furnished the papers, also that our charters be draped in mourning for thirty days, as a tribute of respect to the memory of our brother who has gone, but not forgotten.

Fraternally submitted,
J. G. JOSEPH,
G. B. WILSON,
J. J. HAMLETT,
Committee.

Clarksville Tobacco Market.

The market was more active this week, showing more life than for some weeks, the demands being stronger and more general. The sales will no doubt foot up a total of 350 to 400 Hhds. Some leaf of better quality appeared and brought better prices than such grades did some weeks ago. The market for new crop is not yet fully open, though moderate purchases have been made by some of our stemming houses at prices above what was expected in September. We quote:
